

Alicia Blaine

08/26/21

MS/DI Community

Student Professional Development Plan (PDP)

Goal Wizard Practice Competency Profile and Learning Plan

Practice Competency Profile

Sphere 1 Ethics
Identifies with and adheres to the code of ethics for the profession.
1.1 Demonstrates and maintains competence in practice.
1.1.1 Participates and documents engagement in professional development activities to maintain and enhance competence. 1.1.2 Pursues and embraces opportunities to advance practice. 1.1.3 Keeps abreast of changes in practice and in the practice environment that affect individual competence and legislative scope of practice. 1.1.4 Continuously develops and enhances expertise by seeking feedback and self-assessing competence. 1.1.5 Integrates new knowledge and skills into practice. 1.1.6 Recognizes and exercises professional judgment within the limits of individual qualifications. 1.1.7 Builds collaborative relationships to encourage professional growth and development. 1.1.8 Collaborates with others, seeks counsel and makes referrals as needed.
Sphere 6 Research and Scholarship
6.2 Collects and interprets research data to advance knowledge and practice, and to enhance effectiveness of services.
6.2.1 Identifies and applies appropriate research methods when collecting and retrieving data. 6.2.2 Selects and uses appropriate tools and skills to collect and interpret research data. 6.2.3 Analyzes and interprets data to form valid conclusions and to make recommendations.
Sphere 12 Community, Population and Global Health
12.3 Designs and develops community and population health programs, interventions or initiatives to meet the needs of communities and/or populations.
12.3.1 Designs programs, interventions, or initiatives based on assessment and surveillance data and evidence-based literature. 12.3.2 Applies community-based and population-based models and theories in the development of programs and interventions. 12.3.3 Takes into consideration any population and environmental disparities (e.g., sickness and disease, food and water access finances, air and water quality,) when developing programs. 12.3.4 Collaborates with community partners to design programs. 12.3.5 Takes into consideration World Health Organization and public health policies and standards to design programs, initiatives and interventions. 12.3.6 Prioritizes goals and objectives based on health problems and health problem changeability

Learning Plan

Sphere 1 Ethics
Identifies with and adheres to the code of ethics for the profession.
1.1 Demonstrates and maintains competence in practice.
1.1.4 Continuously develops and enhances expertise by seeking feedback and self-assessing competence.
1.1.7 Builds collaborative relationships to encourage professional growth and development.
Sphere 6 Research and Scholarship
6.2 Collects and interprets research data to advance knowledge and practice, and to enhance effectiveness of services.
6.2.2 Selects and uses appropriate tools and skills to collect and interpret research data.
6.2.3 Analyzes and interprets data to form valid conclusions and to make recommendations.
Sphere 12 Community, Population and Global Health
12.3 Designs and develops community and population health programs, interventions or initiatives to meet the needs of communities and/or populations.
12.3.1 Designs programs, interventions, or initiatives based on assessment and surveillance data and evidence-based literature.
12.3.3 Takes into consideration any population and environmental disparities (e.g., sickness and disease, food and water access finances, air and water quality,) when developing programs.